EPHESIANS 2:11-22

EPH. 2:11-22

<sup>11</sup> So then, remember that at one time you were Gentiles in the flesh—called “the uncircumcised” by those called “the circumcised,” which is done in the flesh by human hands.

EPH. 2:11-22

<sup>12</sup> At that time you were without the Messiah, excluded from the citizenship of Israel, and foreigners to the covenants of the promise, without hope and without God in the world.

EPH. 2:11-22

<sup>13</sup> But now in Christ Jesus, you who were far away have been brought near by the blood of the Messiah. <sup>14</sup> For He is our peace, who made both groups one and tore down the dividing wall of hostility. In His flesh,

EPH. 2:11-22

<sup>15</sup> He made of no effect the law consisting of commands and expressed in regulations, so that He might create in Himself one new man from the two, resulting in peace.

EPH. 2:11-22

<sup>16</sup> He did this so that He might reconcile both to God in one body through the cross and put the hostility to death by it.

<sup>17</sup> When the Messiah came, He proclaimed the good news of peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near.

EPH. 2:11-22

<sup>18</sup> For through Him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father. <sup>19</sup> So then you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with the saints, and members of God's household,

EPH. 2:11-22

<sup>20</sup> built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus Himself as the cornerstone. <sup>21</sup> The whole building, being put together by Him, grows into a holy sanctuary in the Lord. <sup>22</sup> You also are being built together for God's dwelling in the Spirit.
